

A Kinder Wind S Furster 2016

Why is it so hard
To keep love in our hearts
When they say that's what they're for?
And why is it so hard
Holding goodwill in our hearts anyway?
And furthermore
Why is it so easy to hold hate in our minds
Even though we all begin pure?
And why is it so easy to keep fear in our minds
When we know it cannot endure?

We're all wondering...
Is it just me?
Doesn't everybody know
Some don't wanna see
They just can't let it go
The thundering...
When will it end
And a kinder wind prevail
When will we transcend
And let love-light fill the sail

We all know its true, that it's true
We all know it's true, that it's true
So why do we do what we do
Why do we do what we do?

When will it be easy to keep hate from our hearts
And we confess the habit of war?
When will it be easy to keep love in our hearts
And we guess that's what they're for?

We're all wondering...
Is it just me?
Doesn't everybody know
Some don't wanna see
They just can't let it go
The thundering...
When will it end
And a kinder wind prevail
When will we transcend
And let love-light fill the sail

We all know its true, know it's true
We all know it's true, know it's true
So why do we do what we do
Why do we do what we do?
We all know it's true, know it's true
So why do we do what we do?
