

Steve Furster A collection of Songs

Disc 1 Apanie: A song of love for a woman as the sea. Grateful Eyes: A song of realization. Helicopter Bob: A silly song. Insanity Street: A song of mind as dreamscape. Let It Rain: A song of surrender. Lines: The triumph of a young girl over suicide. Love Light: The longing and promise of love. The Best Way Out: A song of dealing with turmoil. There's A Stream: A childrens song. Tonight: A song of breathless young love. Workin Stiffs: A song of work.	Disc 2 A Salt Water Kiss: A song of forgiveness. Closer to Heaven: A song of acceptance. Cool in the Wind: A song of promise and strength. Dettingen: A song of the ghosts of battle. Dreaming On: The city awakens. Limitless: The impossible made possible. Little Being: The story of Human song. No Harm Done: A song of relationships. Ride of Your Life: A life cycle song. Seems To Me: A song of recognition. The River: The song of all of us.	Disc3 A Kinder Wind: An impatience with intolerance. Another Sunrise: A young man leaves. On A Tuesday: A song for America from Canada. On The Day That He Met Her: A song written in an airport. Send Me to the River: A song of completion and renewal. So Easy, Water and Stone: A song of the nature of things. Those Eyes: A song of a photograph and longing. Who Will She Be: A man beholds a child. Seems To Me: A song of wondering.
--	--	--